

5090

For crystal-clear home cinema dialogue, with weight and substance to complement the sky-high detail levels and insight, the 5090 centre channel by Q Acoustics is ideal. It's designed to form the heart of a multi-channel audio system, to project dialogue ahead of even the most full-on Hollywood action movie soundtrack, and to deliver all the subtlety and nuance of art-house favourites with equal ease and conviction. Put the 5090 at the centre of your home cinema system and get the complete picture.
