CITY SLING

About The Product

Effortless everyday carry. Function meets fashion for wearable tech that fits your everyday style and protects against drops and falls – easily adjust the length, then wear it crossbody, as a necklace, or any way that feels most you.

Why have we created City Sling?

Our phones have become an essential component of our modern lifestyle. Always with us, you could say it's almost an extension of ourselves. So we designed City Sling to make it easier to keep your phone always on hand, hands-free. For strolling around the city or exploring the outdoors, easily adjust for a length that fits your comfort and style. Plus, the latest version of our Sling comes with even easier detachment than its predecessor – just unclip for Sling-free use.

Thoughtfully designed to fit your lifestyle

- Compatible with most phone cases
- Pair with (Re)Classic Case, (Re)Clear Case or Active Case
- Versatile carry: attach easily to closed-bottom cases via the adapter & just unclip to go Sling-free
- Built to last with a durable construction that keeps your phone safe & secure
- Comfortable wear with an adjustable length & thicker straps
- Made better for the Earth with a 100% recycled polyester strap made from plastic bottles
- Personalize your carry with seven unique colors
